PRAYER REQUESTS

Persecution: Chinese Christians

On April 3, Chinese police raided a house church (Zion Reformed Church) during Sunday service and arrested seven Christians for violating pandemic rules that prohibit gatherings. Church members reported to China Aid that the detainees were allegedly asked to sign a pledge to "No Longer Attend Zion Church" which they all refused. Police sought a 15-day administrative detention for the seven, but instead asked the Christians to pay a fine of 500 yuan ($79 USD) each, which they refused. Their cell phones were subsequently confiscated. They were released the next day following an interrogation.

One of the members detained was Yao Congya, who is the wife of pastor An Yankui. In 2020, Pastor An was jailed along with 5 members of the church for attending a religious conference in Malaysia and is still in prison (KBC reported about this incident in Jan 2022). (For more info, please go to Persecution.org)
