Please pray for Daniel Kim to finish his deployment strong. He has about a month and a half left and is excited to be with his family & church family once again!

Persecution: Indian Christians

During May, at least 30 Christians were arrested in the Indian state of Uttar Pradesh. Although these Christians were victims of other types of persecutions, authorities filed charges against them for forced conversions. One pastor was at home praying with his family when a mob broke in, dragged him out, and assaulted him before handing him over to the police. In another incident, a group of radicals interrupted a Sunday service where the radicals began filming and harassing the congregation; the mob stole the pastor's bible and shoved him to the ground. The police arrested and filed a report against the pastor. In a third case, two pastors were visiting the home of a fellow Christian when an onlooker told the police the two were engaging in conversion activities; the pastors were arrested.

A house church pastor told International Christian Concern, "We are scared to even conducting small group prayers event that can be framed as forcible conversions. Our lives are in danger, as Christian identity could put us behind the bars, we don't see any way out, only God should intervene."
