Pastor Update

The Mitchum's are continuing to prepare for their transition to Keyport. They have purchased their tickets for travel and Jesse will officially begin as the new senior pastor at KBC as of March 27, 2026! Please continue to pray for them as they finish up their ministry work in Thailand. Also be praying for a good housing solution and transportation options when they join us.

Nigerian Ministry Support

Our church family has the opportunity to support Ibrahim Danladi who will soon be traveling to Nigeria (Dec 28 - Jan 15) on a mission to provide food and essential support to widows, orphans, and families displaced by Boko Haram violence. This includes assisting an orphanage that Ibro's family has supported, helping displaced individuals sheltering at a local church, and visiting Ibro's home village, where many have lost their homes, farms, and loved ones.

Recent economic changes have also made basic necessities unaffordable for many, even those who are employed. While the needs are great, the church's support can make a meaningful difference.

If you would like to partner in this effort, the Refuge has created a site for donations. Use the QR code, all contributions will directly support relief efforts during this trip. Thank you for your prayers and generosity!
